

General terms and conditions of agreement and cancellation rules

Preface

This document contains general terms and conditions which are relevant for all activities organized by the Members' Weekend Committee of s.v. Watt. These terms and conditions are put into effect to clearly state what can and cannot be expected from a participant, but also from the committee members, who will be organising this event. Furthermore, this document contains the general rules and expected manners during the activity in order to run everything smoothly.

Article 1 General

1. At all times, instructions from members of the Members Weekend Committee and designated guidance are leading and must be followed. Failure to comply with these instructions may result in exclusion from further participation in the activity.
2. During the activity, we treat each other in a reasonable manner.
3. The Members' Weekend Committee is not responsible for transport to and from the activity.
4. From 10 pm onwards the noise level is reduced and between 0 am and 8 am the noise level must be kept to a minimum.
5. The Members Weekend Committee reserves the right to keep personal data entered when registering for the event for up to one month after the event in question.
6. During the event pictures will be taken, who later on could also be published on the website.
7. Drug use during the activity will not be tolerated and will lead to immediate exclusion from the activity.
8. The Members Weekend Committee reserves the right to make changes to the conditions that are applicable to specific activities.
9. If there is a possibility of free interpretation of one of the conditions or rules in this document, the interpretation of the members of the Members' Weekend Committee or guidance is always correct.

Article 2 Liability

1. The organization is in no way liable for any form of damage, theft or lost items. The activity is entirely at your own risk.

Article 3 Registration and deregistration

1. All data entered by a member in the registration form in order to sign up for the activity will be visible to all members of the Members Weekend Committee.
2. Payment of members of study association Watt will be done by direct debit.
3. Cancellation must be announced at least two full weeks before the relevant event date. If at the moment of cancellation the two full weeks before the relevant date are already expired and no valid reason has been specified during cancellation (valid reasons are e.g. illness, death, etc.) the payment will only be refunded if a replacing participant can be found.
4. Non-members are excluded from participation of this activity.
